Francisco with one day's later mail and an enormous cargo for the Orient. The vessel is laden with a mammoth cargo of 18,000 tons of freight, in which heavy pieces of electrical machinery for Japan figure prominently, two of the pieces weighing fifteen tons each. Other items in the cargo consist of 6000 bales of cotton, 16,500 bales of cotton sheeting, and 150,000 cases of canned meats. In addition to California freight sent out on the Mongolia, 40 carloads, or twenty big trainloads, of merchandise from Eastern points have been placed in her hold. The vessel could not enter the harbor as she was drawing too much water.

She left San Francisco March 18. For the first two days rough weather was experienced. The passengers from the vessel were brought ashore by the Fearless. There was quite a big swell running and considerable difficulty was experienced getting the passengers on the tug.

Among those who arrived here were Prince Kuhio and wife, George B. McClellan the secretary, did not catch the Mongolia as he was delayed by washouts on the railroads. Other prospective passengers were also delayed by the same cause.

J. G. Pratt the new postmaster of Honolulu returned from Washington. Henry A. Strong father-in-law of Governor Carter arrived for a visit, as did Paul Achilles a nephew of the governor.

James D. Dole the Wahiula farmer returned from a trip to the mainland.

F. J. Haskin an eastern newspaperman stops over at this port.

The Mongolia got away at 11 o'clock this morning for the Orient. She does not go to Manila this trip.

MR. AND MRS. F. W. DOHRMANN, JR., ARRIVE BY THE SIERRA FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

Of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dohrmann, Jr., who arrived by the Sierra, the San Francisco Bulletin says:
The wedding of Miss Emilie Plagemann and F. W. Dohrmann, Jr., took place last night at the residence of the bride's father, 1690 Page street. The guests numbered fifty, the list of invitations being limited to the immediate relatives of the two families.

The decorations were very handsomely arranged by Mrs. Solly Walter and the ceremony took place in the parlor, under a floral bower. The Rev. William Kirk Guthrie performed the ceremony.
Mrs. A. B. C. Dohrmann was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Millie Eckhoff and the Misses Imex and Sephia Pischel. Henry G. Plagemann, brother of the bride, acted as best man.
After the ceremony and congratulations, a supper collation was served in the "Dutch room."

The bride is a pretty brunette and very popular, as attested by the many splendid wedding gifts she received.
She is the only daughter of J. F. Plagemann and is an accomplished singer, having been educated at Miss Ham-lin's school.

The groom is the youngest son of F.
W. Dohrmann and is a member of the University and Unitarian Clubs of this city. He is secretary of the Nathandohrmann Co. He is also an old National Guardsman, now retired as Captain after seeing service during the war in the Philippines where he held rank as first lieutenant and quartermaster of the First California Volunteers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dohrmann leave today on the steamer Sierra for a honeymoon trip to Honolulu. On their return they will reside at 1690 Page street.

SELF DEFENSE KANSIRO'S PLEA

JAPANESE ALLEGED MURDERER BEGINNS HIS DEFENSE IN JUDGE ROBINSON'S COURT.

Self-defense is the claim of the defendant in the murder case of Kansiro Tanda, who is on trial in Judge Robinson's court for murder in the first degree. The prosecution closed this morning, and J. W. Cathcart made a statement of what the defense expected to prove. It differed in very marked degree from the testimony which had been given by witnesses for the prosecution, regarding the immediate circumstances of the killing of Yamasagi.
A night session was held last night, at which Dr. Sawyer and Dr. McDonald were called by Deputy Attorney General Peters, to testify as to the nature to the wounds which caused death.

Cathcart stated that the defense expected to prove that Kansiro never saw the deceased until shortly before the killing took place. On that occasion the deceased passed near him, and stepped on his feet and there were some words about the matter. This was in the hotel where the shooting took place.
Soon after the defendant was told that he was wanted down stairs and when he went in response to the summons he found the deceased and two other Japanese waiting for him. Yamasagi, the deceased, asked him why he had criticized his clothes and the defendant denied having done so. Then Kansiro was attacked by the three Japs, one of them being the deceased. "We expect to prove that he backed away from them," said Cathcart, "and that he finally drew his pistol and told them not to come after him any more; that he fired two shots in the air that the deceased said, 'Why do you shoot in the air,' and continued to come after him; that the three Japs were attacking him when he finally shot, aiming low, at the deceased; that the other shots were fired as the four men were struggling out on to the street. We shall show that Kansiro subsequently found himself on the street, without his weapon, and that he then returned to the hotel and remained sitting there, making no effort to escape. We shall prove that he had no intention of killing Yamasagi, and that he fired when in fear of the physical violence from the three men who were attacking him. Having shown this, we shall ask a verdict of Not Guilty at your honors."

A number of Japanese witnesses were called for the defense.

WAHIAWA FIRE DANGER IS PAST

FOREST FIRE ENCLOSED BY A TRAIL AND PRACTICALLY ALL EXTINGUISHED.

The Wahiawa forest fire is at an end. Forester Hosmer yesterday received a letter from David Haughs stating that the danger is practically past. The letter is as follows:
"Dear Sir: Since you heard from me we have been patrolling the trails and also putting out fires along the fire-line. Today (Thursday) we went along the fire-line from the ditch on the Walia side to the extreme end of the burned part above Waipahu. There is little fear of fires crossing the trails, but by putting out the fires inside the trails we shall be able to save some of the corners of forest that were not burned."

"We had a small fire this afternoon which burned about two miles along the side of the Wahiawa ditch, but as the trail is alongside if the ditch it got no farther."

"We start again tomorrow (Friday) with about twenty men over the same ground that we went over today, to make sure that the fires are entirely out. With perhaps the exception of the small fire that started this afternoon all the other fires will be out by tomorrow night."

"Mr. Goodale has been very liberal with help and assistance. He is sending up his head overseer, Mr. Watt, tomorrow to look over the trails."

"I think we have seen the last of the Wahiawa forest fire and by Saturday we may be able to leave, feeling sure that all fires are entirely out. Yours very truly,

"DAVID HAUGHS."
"P. S.—Friday, 5 a. m.—We have had a slight shower this morning. D. H."

IN THE HOUSE

Superintendent Holloway came to the House a statement of all the alleged for the last six months of 1934 and also reported that he had taken up the matter of the removal of the cross-over connection track in King street near Liliha with Manager Hal-leatyne of the Rapid Transit Co.

The Health committee reported favorably on the resolutions to increase the clothing and beef rations at the Leper settlement and recommended that it be considered in connection with the appropriation bill.

A similar recommendation was made with regard to Aylett's proposal to buy Dr. Goto's leprosy medicine.

Kaniho's petition to separate the settlement from the County of Maui was referred to the Maui delegation.

The Health committee reported favorably on the bill relating to the practice of veterinary, medicine, surgery and dentistry with slight amendments.

The committee on Public Lands and Internal Improvements reported on the following matters:

For a 7 mile road through Kealahou and Honouliuli homesteads, $20,000.
(Pulan) Recommended.

To improve the Pali trail, Kaunakakai to Koke $5000; road from Kanna-kai to top of Pali $2000; jail at Ka-

For relocating Ponahawai street from School street to Halai hill S. Hilo $1-000 (Lewis).

sons drawing salaries from the Terri-

GREAT PILIKIA IN PELEKUNU

HOUSE ASKS THE BOARD OF HEALTH TO LOOK AFTER THE EPIDEMIC ON MOLOKAI.

The following resolution was adopted by the House after a debate:

"Whereas, an epidemic has appeared in the valley of Pelekunu, Molokai, from which several deaths have resulted, and,

"Whereas, some of the residents of the said valley have moved to Halawa and the danger of the spread of the epidemic is apparent, and,

"Whereas, there is no regular government physician on the island of Molokai, and the danger of the spread of the epidemic to Kalawao and Kalaupapa makes it imperative that immediate action be taken;

"Therefore, be it resolved: That the Board of Health to immediately take up the matter of the epidemic and act thereupon."

As originally introduced by Nakuina the resolution was that the Health Committee of the House should immediately send two physicians with medicines to the scene of the outbreak but the chance to pass something back to the Board of Health was too good to be missed and Coe's amendment prevailed.

ments, and action was deferred until next Wednesday.

Senate Bill 86, the Iverymen's lien bill, was sent back to the committee.

House Bills 95, 76, 129, 132 and 151 were read for the second time and referred.

House Bill 136, levying a tax of $200 a year on social clubs was taken up and read for the second time, section by section. The Ways and Means Committee had recommended that the tax be fixed as in the bill, and when the matter of the adoption of the report came up, Paris, who had submitted a minority report fixing the tax at $250 a year, moved that the sum be fixed at that amount. He pleaded that the light wine and beer license was $250, and clubs in the outside districts would take advantage of this bill and knock out the light wine and beer men.

Paris was beaten on the vote, and the amount of the tax fixed as in the bill.
The bill then passed second reading. It will be read for the third time on Monday.

Dickey introduced a bill relating to taxes, designed to take the place of Achi's tax bill. It passed first reading.
The Senate then adjourned.
